Re: "Latino Savvy Caregiver"

To Whom It My Concern:

This letter is to confirm that Alzheimer's Los Angeles has retained WE MAKE MOVIES to produce "Savvy Caregiver Videos" on our behalf, filming on October 26th, 2019 through October 29th, 2019.

The "Savvy Caregiver Videos" will be included in a training module to help provide valuable tools and tips to those caring for someone with Alzheimer's or dementia.

Alzheimer's Los Angeles would appreciate any waived or discounted rate on film permits to WE MAKE MOVIES for this project. Any fees waived and/or reduced for this project by FilmLA on behalf of the Los Angeles County, will result in an equivalent reduction in cost to Alzheimer's Los Angeles.

Sincerely,

Marie Mayen-Cho, MPH

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3). Donors can deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts under Section 2055, 2106, or 2522. This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Organizations exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) are further classified as either public charities or private foundations. We determined you're a public charity under the IRC Section listed at the top of this letter.

Our records show you were previously tax exempt as a subordinate under group exemption number 9334. Because you applied for and were granted your own individual tax-exempt status, you no longer rely on your affiliation with a parent organization for recognition of your tax exemption and you'll be listed individually in the Exempt Organizations Select Check (Pub. 78 data).

If, in the future, you choose to become a subordinate under a group ruling, you'll lose your individual recognition of tax-exempt status and you'll no longer appear in the Exempt Organizations Select Check (Pub. 78 data). Moreover, if you become a subordinate under a group ruling and your parent organization loses its tax-exempt status, you also will lose your exempt status. To reestablish your individual tax exemption after rejoining a group exemption, you'll be required to reapply and pay the appropriate user fee.

This supersedes our letter dated January 15, 2016, which we issued with an incorrect name. We updated our records to show your correct name as listed at the top of this letter.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-PC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-PC, Compliance Guide for 501(c)(3) Public Charities, which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.
